

Jonathan De La Paz BSN, RN

Jonathan10620@gmail.com

(830) 237-3964

Objective	Obtain a position wherein my abilities to provide compassionate care, manage time effectively, prioritize interventions and formulate solutions are fully utilized. I also seek to research, formulate, and continually improve upon interventions and methodologies within nursing through national organizational activity.
-----------	---

Experience	Registered Nurse, Neuroscience UnitManaged care over a wide population of neurological patients while garnering skills on time management, customer service and inter-disciplinary communication. Championed efforts to improve patient health outcomes, particularly in stroke education. Investigated initiatives to improve stroke patient's mood in the acute in patient care setting using innovative mobile tablet exercises.June 18'- Mar 19' Patient Care TechBeing a PCT provided me the experience to learn valuable nursing fundamentals that are not necessarily taught in school which include the decorum of excellent client service, service recovery techniques, de-escalation tactics and more holistic quality patient care that include emotional and spiritual supportJune 17'- Mar 18' School of Nursing Class of 2017 RepresentativeMember of the faculty and student governance committee which entails the delineation and dissemination of crucial academic information, planning and coordination for the annual pinning ceremony, the sampling and auditing of course curriculum for revisions and improvements, and maintaining dialogue with the students for concerns and recommendations for the program.Jan 16'- Dec 16' Former member of Student FoundationA chartered organization at Texas State with the purpose of encouraging student leaders to be involved in campus, community and alumni activities; to enlist outstanding students at Texas State; and to promote the general welfare of the university. I had the distinct honor to work with the Dean of Students to plan and coordinate a multitude of academic eventsJan 15'- Aug 15' Assistant Surveyor, Geomatics of Texas, Inc.Assisted in the managing of topographical & boundary surveys, and global positioning systems along with digital terrain modeling.Mar 19'-present
------------	---

National Organizational Activity	American Association of Neuroscience Nurses Active member of AANN which is committed to working for the highest standard of care for neuroscience patients by advancing the science and practice of neuroscience nursing. My involvement allows me to further advance my knowledge in the neurosciences while discovering research opportunities and participating in mentorships Dec '18- present
	The National Society of Collegiate Scholars An honor organization that recognizes and elevates high achievers, while providing career and graduate school resources, leadership and service opportunities. NSCS has given me a deep commitment to scholarship, leadership and service and as a result, has allowed me to impact my workplace and my local community in positive and constructive ways. April '14- present
	Alpha Chi National College Honor Society Alpha Chi is a highly selective coeducational academic honor society whose membership proffered me opportunities that have distinguished my academic excellence and professional acumen. This prestigious organization has also granted me networking opportunities that have transformed into strong academic and professional relationships April '14- present
Certifications & Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ACLS • BLS • NIH Stroke Scale Certified • Management of Assaultive Behavior • Research • Poster Presentation • Bilingual (Spanish) • iOS app development
Awards & Distinctions	Abstract Acceptance to National Stroke Education Conference Conducted and submitted research on mobile tablet based therapy for acute stroke patients which was selected among a national wide pool. My research was presented as a poster at the annual AANN Stroke Education Conference.
	Service Excellence Award Awarded to the group of Texas State nursing students who were selected for developing and presenting a professional quality poster program that sought to improve public health within a community
	Ducis Leadership Award Awarded to the Student Foundation member who exemplifies the highest quality of leadership within this prestigious organization
Formal Education	Texas State University at San Marcos Bachelors in the Science of Nursing
References	Magdiel Garcia MSN, RN Magdiel.d.garcia@gmail.com	Joshua Thomas MSN, RN jmthomas@utexas.edu
	Dr. Margahrita Arellano Ma33@txstate.edu	Alessandra Rossi alessandra.rossi@stdavids.com
	Sharon Jones Sharon.jones@stdavids.com	Michael Holman michael.holman@stdavids.com